CHAIR'S WELCOME

A very warm welcome to the Ringwood Community Hub for this evenings SDFA 3rd Round cup tie against Bishops Waltham Dynamos FC.

We welcome our visitors' players, committee members, and spectators, together with match officials, referee Declan Skehan, and his assistants Theo Down, and Luke Ashley .

Saturday's welcome 3-2 victory was a fantastic example of the resilience and character within our squad. Credit goes to every player involved and to Fran and his coaching team for building the depth needed to compete consistently across a demanding schedule.

As fixtures continue to come thick and fast, I would like to thank groundsman Pete Alvis for the outstanding work, requiring many dedicated hours, he puts into maintaining our pitch we can all be proud of.

We remain active in all the local cup competitions and, while winning can become a habit, it is the quality of performance and commitment that is the focus and determines the outcome This is key against all our opponents.

Enjoy the game.
Phil

MANAGER'S NOTES

A very much-needed win against Alresford on Saturday and one that meant a lot to everyone involved.

Without the evergreen Dave and Mayzie we were an average age of just 21.4. This was a young side that showed tremendous character. To be trailing after 84 minutes and still find a way to win says everything about their spirit, belief and togetherness.

It was a brilliant afternoon for Isaac Jackson, scoring his first Wessex League goal, while seeing Brodie Yates battle back from a difficult spell with injuries and get on the scoresheet was a special moment. Both are Ringwood lads, and seeing local lads create memories like that for their club means an awful lot. Good to see Browner more like himself too with a well taken finish.
I also want to mention our wonderful senior players Dave Allen, Ben Harris and Danny May among a few others. Their and others attitude, experience, leadership and support for the younger lads continue to be invaluable around the group.

Josh Stoodley was our Man of the Match. Outstanding at centre-back, he led by example and produced the kind of performance that gives everyone real encouragement moving forward.

We now turn our attention to a tough cup tie against Bishops Waltham tonight. We know the challenge ahead, but we'll approach it with confidence and look forward to testing ourselves against a very good side in good form.

Thank you, as always, for your fantastic support.

UTT
Fran

Match Reports

Ringwood Town Disability

Match reports for Southern Inclusive League opening games Sunday 4th Oct 2026

Ringwood Town B 2-1 AFC Totton C
A game of few chances. Katie defended well from the 1st minute helping keep the Totton attackers at bay. Richard Blake scored at the near post to take the lead then Totton equalised shortly thereafter. Stuart, Katie and Richard performed creditably in supporting the loaned players drafted in due to player absences. A loan player scored late on to make the score 2-1.

Ringwood Town B 0-0 Brendon66
Chances were at a premium in this one. The best chance fell to James Brown who forced a great save from the Brendon 66 keeper. Richard Blake had couple chances further on but with no luck.

Ringwood Town B 2-2 ST. Francis
Ringwood Town started slowly. St. Francis created several chances, scoring twice early on. Katie provided a great assist for Richard to make the score 2-1. Nearing the final whistle Ringwood equalised. James Brown, turning the Totton midfielder, made a quick darting run down the right side, and his shot was turned in by Richard. This meant the day ended with Ringwood Town B unbeaten.

Squad list
3. James Brown
10. Richard Blake
13. Stuart Mander
14. Katie Brown (captain)

Match reports for Southern Inclusive League

Ringwood Town A 1-1 Brendon 66 B
A very close game with Ringwood Town making a slow start. Brendon scored with good finish early on. A fortunate equaliser followed when the Brendon keeper's goal kick fell to Jordan Williams who had no problem slotting it home. Full credit then to Ringwood's keeper Ben Christopher who made a world class save to keep the score at 1-1.

Ringwood Town A 4-0 Hamble Purple
A game which Ringwood Town started brightly. Jordan scored early on to make it 1-0 then a few minutes later scored again with a long-range finish to make it 2-0. Another good finished later secured a hattrick for Jordan. New signing James Coe scored on his first start to make it 4-0.

Ringwood Town A 4-0 Hamble Red
Ringwood Town continued where they left off. An early goal from Jordan was followed with his second after a good left-footed finish. Hamble Red pressed but the defence of Williams & Damien held firm. James Coe scored the 3rd with neat finish then after few more attempts Kieran Luckham scored to make it 4-0. Hamble pushed but could not breach Ringwood's defence.

Ringwood Town A 0-3 Brendon 66 A
An impressive performance by Brendon with football which wouldn't look out place higher up the pyramid. Ringwood competed well but struggled to match their opponents.
